Shropshire sheep are a very useful breed, dating back to the mid 1800's when farmers in the West Midlands improved the hardy native heath and hill sheep of the region.

Their desirable traits are:

- Shropshire ewes make excellent mothers. They are milky and prolific, successfully rearing multiples and producing lambs over many years.
- They are hardy, docile, and easy-care, enabling efficient flock management with minimal time and effort.
- They produce top quality lambs - frequently grading as U and R for conformation.
- They have a well-established track record for grazing in conifer plantations without damaging the trees.
- More recently they have been used for environmentally friendly weed and herbage control in orchards.
- Vineyard growers are learning of the useful traits of Shropshire's too.
- Shropshire wool is good quality and suitable for knitting yarn.

For anyone interested in talking about their uses in the above, we will have experienced keepers of the breed available to answer any of your questions on the day of the sale.

Kinship Analysis

For anyone who needs a check run on how compatible a ram would be with their females there is a mating check available on Grassroots or Alison Schofield, our registrar will gladly run this through for you.

Official Breed Description

The Shropshire is medium sized, with typical mature rams and ewes weighing 120+kgs and 70+kgs respectively. Shropshire Sheep are active and alert with free action.

Head Naturally clean, soft black face, with a covering of wool on the poll. Rams should possess a bold masculine head.

Ears Soft black in colour, of medium length and well set on.

Neck Muscular and not too long.

Body Well fleshed, long, deep, and symmetrical. A broad, straight back with well-sprung ribs. Rump – quarters long and wide, dock well set on and gigots full and deep.

Legs Medium length, of strong bone and upright joints, well set apart and soft black in colour.

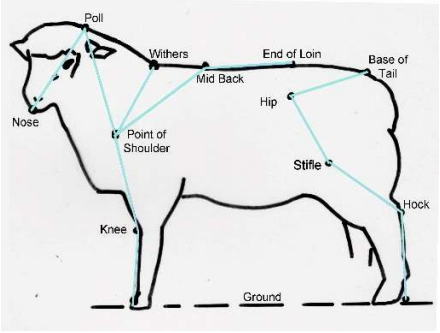

Skin & Wool Cherry pink skin covered with dense, fine quality wool of good staple.

Undesirable Traits:

- Receding wool above the eyes.
- Lack of wool around the base of the ears.
- Excessive black wool or patches of dark skin with no wool on the head, either in front of or between the ears
- Coloured wool in fleece
- White patches or mottling on the face, ears and/or legs.
- Throatiness-being loose skin below the neck
- Horn stubs
- Thick, coarse, long, pricked, or drooping ears.
- Drooping rump (dock set low)
- Roman nose
- Coarse wool on breeches

Conformation and Locomotion

In addition to the requirements detailed in the previous section, the action or the way an animal moves is an important consideration especially for exhibition and can make the difference between first and second place. Pauline Bowles, a renowned judge and exhibitor of Shropshire sheep wrote "Usually your preferred animals virtually choose themselves: they catch your eye by their alertness and stance. A good sheep has a leg at each corner and when it moves its back foot should follow behind the front, in a straight line from the knee and hock downwards. Back feet should be seen to be lifted. Sheep which fail to lift their hind legs and are seen to 'shuffle' suggest a narrow pelvis. A lifted walk is desirable and indicates a wide pelvis, which in turn should make for easier lambing.

For perfect conformation in a sheep, cow, dog or cat, the symmetry should be right. This is how it was described by a top Friesian breeder. Measure your animal, the following inter-point distance should be of equal length:-

- Tip of nose to the top of the poll
- Poll to point of shoulder
- Point of shoulder to middle of back
- Middle of back to the front end of the loin
- Base of tail to hip joint
- Hip joint to stifle joint
- Stifle joint to the point of the hock
- Point of the hock to the ground
- Point of withers to the point of the shoulder
- Point of shoulder to middle of knee joint
- Middle of knee joint to the ground

Charity Auction.

The Cleaton Flock has kindly donated 2 shearling ewes from the Fairfield's Flock to be auctioned in aid of prostate cancer charity.

Mr Trevor Lightfoot had been a breeder of Shropshire sheep for many years before ill health made him decide to sell his flock just after lambing them himself in 2025.

Owen Powell (Cleaton) took on the whole flock, so it was very pleasing for Trevor to see them all going to one place.

In appreciation of this there will be 2 lovely Fairfield shearling ewes at the auction.

Shearling ewes Fairfields 502 and 488. They have been genotype tested with SRUC and both are ARR/ARR genotype.

Blue tongue vaccinated and on Hep P system

The non MV sheep will be sold at 1pm, then this pair first through the sale ring, followed by other charity lots and then the Shropshire Sheep in lot order.

Alfie Benbow has the following lots to auction to add to the charity:

1. Head stock to fit a hurdle - kindly donate by Paul Murry
2. Children clothing - kindly donated by The Sheep Game
3. Adult clothing - kindly donated by The Sheep Game
4. Life-Gard multi-vit drench and 2 tubes of colostrum paste kindly donated by Minexel nutrition
5. Bucket of alcohol kindly donated by Colin Benbow
6. Malteser Cake (50 pieces) kindly donated by Jane Arrell
7. 2.5ltr of Liquithrive sheep kindly donated by Agri Lloyd
8. Aytin shears have donated a set of 3 trimming shears (See Facebook page)
